BOSTON COLLEGE
Center for Christian-Jewish Learning
- ZOOM WEBINAR -

White Supremacy and Anti-Semitism
Lessons from the Capitol Attack

Jonathan D. Sarna

One of the rioters, at left, who broke into the Capitol was wearing a hoodie emblazoned with "Camp Auschwitz." ITV

Wednesday, January 13, 2021
8:00-9:00 pm (Eastern Time)
Click here for Zoom registration.

Jonathan D. Sarna is University Professor and Joseph H. & Belle R. Braun Professor of American Jewish History at Brandeis University, where he directs the Schusterman Center for Israel Studies. He also chairs the Academic Advisory and Editorial Board of the Jacob Rader Marcus Center of the American Jewish Archives in Cincinnati, and serves as Chief Historian of the National Museum of American Jewish History in Philadelphia.

Author or editor of more than thirty books on American Jewish history and life, his American Judaism: A History (Yale 2004), recently published in a second edition, won six awards including the 2004 "Everett Jewish Book of the Year Award" from the Jewish Book Council. His most recent books are (with Benjamin Shapell) Lincoln and the Jews: A History (St. Martin's, 2015), and When General Grant Expelled the Jews (Schocken/Nextbook, 2012). His annotated edition of Cora Wilburn's previously unknown 1860 novel, Cosella Wayne (University of Alabama Press), has also just appeared.

Please email discussion questions to cjlearning@bc.edu.
This event will be recorded and made available publicly through the Center's website and social media.
www.bc.edu/cjlearning