

English Translation of the Weston School of Theology of the Society of Jesus:

The Pontifical Faculty of Theology in the Weston School of Theology of the Society of Jesus located in Cambridge in the State of Massachusetts.

Greetings in the Lord to all who read this document.

Since all matters contained in the Apostolic Constitutions and our Statutes have been promulgated in the name and under the auspices of our most holy lord [Pope], the Supreme Pontiff gloriously reigning, we testify by the authority of the Apostolic See vested in us that the person designated by us, [Name], having been duly examined, has been promoted to the Licentiate in Sacred Theology and by us has been granted each and every right and privilege pertaining to that grade. In testimony of this event we have provided this document furnished with our public seal and signatures in our Academic hall on the eighteenth of the month of [Month] in the year of (our) Lord [Year].
