Specific criteria for Alumni Awards of Excellence are as follows:

WILLIAM V. MCKENNEY AWARD

The highest honored bestowed by the Alumni Association, this award was created in 1936 in honor of its first recipient, William V. McKenney '15. The award recognizes a Boston College graduate whose outstanding service to a chosen profession, community, or cause reflects honor on the University.

PROFESSIONAL EXCELLENCE

For nearly 150 years, Boston College alumni have distinguished themselves within their chosen professions. The BC Alumni Association is proud to honor those whose perseverance and hard work have helped them achieve great success.

GOLD AWARD

The GOLD Award recognizes an outstanding Graduate of the Last Decade for excellence in a chosen profession, to a community/social cause, or to Boston College. It is intended to recognize those who are truly inspirational to others.

IGNATIAN AWARD

This award recognizes an individual who lives the Ignatian mission of “men and women for others.” By serving others and exhibiting a caring, giving approach to life, this individual clearly serves as an example to all members of the BC community.
