

Announcing FELLOWSHIPS

for post-doctoral or equivalent advanced study at Boston College in areas related to the work of

Bernard Lonergan

Fellowships in amounts ranging from five to fifteen thousand dollars each will be awarded for use during the 2002-03 academic year in support of research projects concerned with, or drawing on, the thought of Bernard J. F. Lonergan, S.J.

Preference in the awarding of these Fellowships will be given to scholars who have earned the PH.D., or a similar advanced degree, and who will be able to be in residence at Boston College for the whole academic year.

Applicants for the Lonergan Fellowships should prepare a dossier that includes (1) a curriculum vitae, (2) a letter of recommendation from an established scholar acquainted with the applicant's qualifications and work, and (3) a proposal outlining in approximately five hundred words the project of research and/or writing which the applicant expects to pursue, its relation to Lonergan's philosophy, theology, or economics, and the resources at Boston College on which it will draw. These documents should be sent not later than December 1, 2001 to

Lonergan Institute
Bapst Library
Boston College
Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts 02467

Inquiries about the Fellowships should be sent to Joseph Flanagan, S.J., Director of the Lonergan Institute, Boston College. Decisions will be announced by February 15, 2002.