ST. IGNATIUS FAITH FORUM

"WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO SAY I BELIEVE?"

These informal conversations will take place by the fireside at the pastor's manse (130 Beacon Street). There will be two chats on alternating Wednesday evenings (October 24th and November 7th) beginning at 7:15 and going until about 8:45 pm. Both Fr. Bob and J.A. Loftus will accompany the group conversation.

Excerpts from two recent books will focus the conversation. They are Joan Chittister's In Search of Belief (Ligouri/Triumph, 2006, [Revised edition]), and Timothy Radcliffe's What is the Point of Being Christian (Continuum, 2006). Copies of selected chapters will be available at the Rectory on Sunday, October 21st. (Both books are interesting and worth reading in their entirety; they are both available through Amazon.com and at bookstores should you wish to purchase them.)

To register for these chats, please phone the rectory during regular hours (617-552-6102) and leave your name and some contact information.

SUNDAY MORNING ADULT FAITH FORUM

All are invited to join in conversation with our presiders and other members of the St. Ignatius Community every Sunday following the 10:00 am Liturgy. Beginning today, October 21st, there will be an opportunity to share reflections on the Scriptures, homilies, or other topics of interest in our on-going Faith journey. Please join us for this time, so that we may continue to grow together in our call to know, love and serve God and our neighbor.

PARKING

PARKING AT ST. IGNATIUS - Please note that we are permitted to use the parking spaces adjacent to Williams Hall on Sundays and holydays when BC is not in session. The entrance to the parking area is the very first right on Lake St, across Commonwealth Ave. Williams Hall is the first building on the right.

PARKING SPACES behind the Church are reserved for staff who need to have access and egress on Sunday morning. Also, space is needed for emergency vehicles and the handicapped.

The strangers who sojourn with you shall be to you as the natives among you and you shall love them as yourself; for you were strangers in the land of Egypt" (Leviticus 19:33-34)

October 21 - INTRODUCTION TO CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING AND IMMIGRATION

What the justice tradition of the Church and recent pastoral letters of the US Bishops have to say about the dignity and rights of migrants, the unity of families, national security and border control.

Speaker: Sr. Marie Prefontaine, SND, a distinguished educator in the field of migration theology and pastoral care, has directed offices of immigrant and refugee ethnic ministries in both the Archdiocese of Boston and the Diocese of Worcester. Sr. Marie has also served the USCCB in its Office of Pastoral Care of Migrants and Refugees.

ENSEÑANZA CATÓLICA Y LA INMIGRACIÓN

Que enseña nuestra fe con respecto a la cuestión compleja de la inmigración? Cual es la realidad para millones de inmigrantes en nuestro país?

Que quiere decir ser "indocumentado" or "residente legal" bajo las leyes actuales. Comenzaremos nuestra conversación sobre la enseñanza católica de los derechos de los inmigrantes así como las responsabilidades de los países con las historias de las escrituras y las de los inmigrantes que viven entre nosotros. Vengan a escuchar lo que aquellos que han conocido el exilio, desde los tiempos de Abrahám hasta el presente, tienen que decir sobre la dignidad, la familia, los derechos humanos. Acompañemos para la primera reunion de nuestra serie de presentadores, diálogos, empezando el 14 de octubre y continuando el 28 de Octubre y los 4 y 18 de Noviembre a 1:30 en la Capilla Lanon.

FIRST RECONCILIATION AND EUCHARIST - Parents of students who intend to receive these sacraments this year should attend an informational meeting on October 28 at 9am in the Lannon Chapel. In order to plan effectively, to keep accurate records, and to maintain effective communication, we would ask that if you cannot attend this meeting please be in touch with our office so that we may supply you with necessary information.
