SAINT JOHN SCHOOL, WELLESLEY, educates children from Preschool through Grade Six. THE SCHOOL IS SEEKING A SIXTH GRADE TEACHER FOR ITS INTERMEDIATE PROGRAM. The sixth grade educator would also be responsible for teaching language arts to 4th, 5th and 6th grade students. Other intermediate faculty would teach science and math to those grades. In this position, you would be responsible for arranging independent, private and Catholic secondary school visits to the school and to be involved in interview and writing preparation for your students seeking admissions to area schools. SJS offers a strong academic program enriched by the arts and deeply rooted in Catholic tradition. The school is most welcoming and invites you to consider our environment to continue your educational career. You may contact Principal Kathleen Aldridge at 781-235-0300 or kaldridge@saintjohnschool.net.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE ARTS-BASED PROGRAM

The ABP operates from a pedagogy which is experiential. In order to make it work, for both catechists and children, the class size needs to be such that all involved will receive the instruction and attention they deserve. In order to be fair to all of the families who are involved, we need to limit the number of children who are able to register to 60. One of the requirements for participating in this program will be attendance at the retreat (October 21-23). It is NOT a requirement to stay overnight at the retreat. If you were NOT a participant in the program last year (2010-2011), you are required to meet with Amy Chapman prior and in order to register for this program.
