To all of our singers and musicians, all our Liturgical Ministers, our Art and Environment Committee members, all of our parishioners and everyone who contributed so generously this Christmas Season enhancing our Liturgical services.

"EPIPHANY PARTIES" - To celebrate the season this year, the parish is again planning a number of "Epiphany Parties" on the weekends of January 5th /6th and 12th /13th. These parties will be hosted by parishioners in different geographical areas. This will be a wonderful chance to meet St. Ignatius parishioners who live near you and whom you may not know. If you did not receive an invitation in the mail, please call the rectory (617-552-6102) and we will be happy to send you one and give you the name of the parishioner hosting a party in your area.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING - Any parishioner who volunteers in our various ministries, as well as all staff members, is required to go through the Protecting God's Children Training. The next training for this year is to be held on Sunday, January 13th from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm., in the Friary Room. If you are a volunteer and have not gone through this training, it is essential that you attend on January 13th, or we will make arrangements for you to attend one of these trainings at another parish. Please contact the rectory (617-552-6102) to register.

Congratulations to Mary Ann Glendon

President George W. Bush nominated Professor Mary Ann Glendon as the new U.S. Ambassador to the Vatican on November 5th. The U.S. Senate confirmed Mary Ann, a long time parishioner at St. Ignatius, a U.S. Law professor and President of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences, as the new U.S. ambassador to the Vatican on December 19th. The parish wishes to extend our prayers and best wishes for success in her new appointment.

Service trip to St. Anne's Parish, Jamaica

Many of you have heard Fr. Peter McIsaac, pastor of our sister parish, St. Anne's in Kingston, Jamaica, speak at St. Ignatius about his parish and its people. Kingston is hours away from the resorts of Negril, Montego Bay and Ocho Rios, and many of its residents, including the parishioners of St. Anne's, live in chronic poverty and deprivation.

A group of St. Ignatius parishioners is traveling to St. Anne's January 20 - January 28 for the second annual St. Ignatius service and faith-sharing trip to St. Anne's.

How You Can Help

Father Peter has told us that St. Anne's School is in need of school supplies and children's books. Each of us going on the trip will bring an extra suitcase to carry donated items.

Children's and teen's books

Books may be new or gently used. Sufficient copies of a suitable 2nd or 3rd grade book for an entire class (about 35 copies) would be particularly helpful, as the children typically have to share books in class.

School supplies

Pencils, pencil sharpeners, composition books, pads of paper, crayons, dry erase and washable markers and masking tape are needed.

Monetary donations

Money to buy things the school needs is greatly appreciated.

Please bring all donations to the church no later than Sunday, January 13.

Thank you!
