First meeting professor of physics Ren Zhifeng on an aeroplane, Judy Polumber went to Ren to Nantu County in Southwest China's Shican Province to find out how the scholar is trying to improve local rural education.

Ren Zhifeng doesn't want this story to be about him. But this is Britain, during the Somalian or Chechnya, the trend...

Ren is neither a former student of the school in the county seat. But something has gone wrong. A report published last week by the BMA isn’t what we are...
