2006 Cherry Blossom Tournament

This Week: Saturday, April 8 Cherry Blossom Tournament National Mall, Washington D.C. 12:00

The Washington Rugby Football Club will host the 40th Annual Cherry Blossom Tournament on April 8 & 9, 2006. The Cherry Blossom is known as the premier rugby tournament on the east coast, and attracts national powers such as Air Force and Ohio State. Boston College will take their place on the National Mall after faring well the past two years. In 2004, BC logged an inspired win against an outstanding Penn State squad, and last year lost to the Naval Academy in the semi-finals.

BC will be in Pool F, which includes ACC rival NC State and last year's CBT champion, Georgetown. BC will play two matches on Saturday, April 8th. They will face Georgetown at 12:10pm, and will then play NC State at 3:30pm. BC will play both Saturday matches on Field 2 (White). Sunday's schedule will be determined by Saturday's results.

For more information on this year's Cherry Blossom Tournament, please contact BCRFC Vice President Steve Petteruti at petterut@bc.edu or by phone at 401-499-1689.
