

BOSTON COLLEGE CENTER FOR IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY

2008-2009

FALL SEMESTER:

- Jesuit Mission and the Challenge of Pluralism—Howard J. Gray, S.J., September 17, 2008
- “A Fire That Kindles Other Fires”: The Jesuit’s 35th General Congregation—Bradley Schaeffer, S.J. and Michael Boughton, S.J., October 28, 2008
- Martyrs In Our Own Times: The Jesuits in El Salvador—Jose Maria Tojeira, S.J., November 5, 2008 (Co-sponsored by Campus Ministry, Theology Dept, Ignatian Society)

SPRING SEMESTER:

- A New Year’s Retreat— A four-day silent directed retreat in Cohasset for Boston College faculty, administrators and staff. Spaces limited. Contact Center for information and an application. January 2-5, 2009
- A Retreat In Everyday Life—An eight-week Lenten experience of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola, with daily prayer and a weekly meeting with a spiritual guide. For Boston College faculty, administrators and staff. Spaces limited. Contact Center for information and an application. Week of February 15-Easter (April 12) 2009
- “As Though You Were in Prison With Them” (Hebrews 13:3): Learning About Prayer by Being with the Poor—William Reiser, S.J., February 26, 2009, 4:30 PM, Devlin 101 (Co-sponsored by C21)
- What Can Happen On An Ignatian Retreat—A presentation by a panel of retreat directors and retreatants from Eastern Point Retreat House, Gloucester, April 14, 2009, 7:00 PM, Heights Room (Co-sponsored by C21)

BOSTON COLLEGE
CENTER FOR IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY
www.bc.edu/centers/cis/

96 College Road
617-552-1777
Michael Boughton, S.J., Director
michael.boughton@bc.edu
Cindy Blazuk, Admin Assistant
blazuk@bc.edu