

THE BOSTON COLLEGE CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE & CO-SPONSORS PRESENT

GRANDMOTHERS OF THE PLAZA DE MAYO

The Association of the Grandmothers of the Plaza de Mayo is one of the most prominent human rights organizations in Argentina. Now in their 31st year, they have located 88 of the estimated 500 children disappeared by the dictatorship that ruled Argentina between 1976 and 1983.

Guest speakers Estela Carlotto and Rosa Roisinblit will speak as representatives of this organization.

Estela Carlotto

Wednesday, April 16
Boston College
McGuinn 121
7:00pm

Rosa Roisinblit

CO-SPONSORED BY THE BOSTON COLLEGE CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE, LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES, WOMEN'S STUDIES, INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, AND DEPARTMENT OF COUNSELING, DEVELOPMENTAL, AND EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

THE BOSTON COLLEGE CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE
WWW.BC.EDU/HUMANRIGHTS HUMANRIGHTS@BC.EDU 617-552-1968