Taking Flight:
When Jesus was a Refugee
The Flight to Egypt in Western Art
Leo O’Donovan, SJ
President Emeritus, Georgetown University
Wednesday,
Nov. 30
7:30 p.m.
Boston College
Murray Room
Yawkey Center

A lecture and slideshow featuring images in Western art of Jesus and the Holy Family fleeing to Egypt to escape the murderous oppression of King Herod, reflecting on their aesthetic and spiritual beauty and making linkages between those images and the current reality lived by the refugees of today.

Photo Credit: Clockwise - Caravaggio “Rest on Flight to Egypt,” Oxfam International via Flickr, Oxfam International via Flickr, “Stained Glass Panel with the Flight into Egypt.” Contact CHRIJ x2-8491