On October 10, 2011, the Migration, Theology and Faith Forum (MTFF) is holding its first Resource Day! The day will provide a space for religious leaders, immigrant communities, theologians, activists and academics to share ideas.

We would be delighted if you were able to join us! We will meet on the campus of Episcopal Divinity School; 99 Brattle St; Cambridge, MA 02138.

In addition to our panel, we will serve lunch and host a series of workshops:

- Theology and Immigration
- Faith Based Organizations: Good Practice
- Immigrant Congregations
- The Role of Spirituality and Faith in Refugee and Immigrant Trauma and Healing

To RSVP to this event (no charge), please go to faithandimmigration.eventbrite.com, or call us at 360-870-6910. If your organization is interested in having a promotional table at the event, please call or email us at migration@eds.edu.
