MUSLIM STUDENTS AND RELIGIOUS HOSPITALITY AT CATHOLIC INSTITUTIONS

A Roundtable Discussion

Monday, March 20
6:00PM
Campion 139

With Laurie Johnston, Boston College Visiting Professor, and CHRIJ Visiting Scholar; and Hanaa Khan, LSOE '17, and Liam Maguire, MCAS '17, CHRIJ undergraduate research assistants

How can Catholic universities be hospitable towards Muslim students while remaining loyal to their religious identity? Join us for a roundtable discussion focused on the experiences of Muslim students at Catholic universities. The discussion will address ways universities effectively support Muslim students and how they’ve reconciled with the struggles of minority religious groups on Catholic campuses.

Sponsored by the BC Center for Human Rights and International Justice. Co-sponsored by the BC Muslim Students Association. RSVP at www.bc.edu/humanrights/events

Contact: CHRIJ 617-552-8491 • humanrights@bc.edu • www.bc.edu/humanrights