OUR DISAPPEARED NUESTROS DESAPARECIDOS

a film by Juan Mandelbaum

“Our Disappeared” profiles the fates of thousands who were kidnapped, tortured and then “disappeared” by the Argentinean military during the 1976-1983 dictatorship. The director shares dramatic stories told by parents, siblings, friends and children of the disappeared and shows how brutal regimes can attack the fabric of a country and inflict suffering that lasts for generations.
