

The Boston College Center for Human Rights and International Justice presents

World Trade and Justice for the Poor: Impact of Global Talks Breakdown

Wednesday, September 24th 7:30 PM
Higgins 300

Analysis of the apparent breakdown of the Doha Round at the WTO meetings in Geneva and its implications for justice toward the poor in the developing world.

Panelists:

David Deese, B.C. Political Science, author of World Trade Politics: Power, Principles, and Leadership

Frank Garcia, B.C. Law School, author of "Justice, the Bretton Woods Institutions and the Problem of Inequality."

James Anderson, B.C. Economics Department, author of "Borders, Trade and Welfare."

<http://www.bc.edu/humanrights> humanrights@bc.edu 617-552-1968