JOURNALISM IN A CHANGING MEDIA LANDSCAPE

November 9th – 19th, 2010
Boston, Massachusetts & New York, New York

Up to fourteen young journalists (22-35 years old) from Ireland and from Northern Ireland will be selected to engage with their American counterparts in a discussion about the direction of journalism in the 21st Century. Applications are encouraged from those working in all variety of media.

The programme is sponsored by the Irish Institute at the Centre for Irish Programmes, Boston College, and the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Programme-related costs including travel, accommodation, tuition, and the majority of meals are provided.

The programme is not open to U.S. citizens, Green Card holders, or past participants of U.S. Government-funded Irish Institute programmes. Short-listed applicants must be available for interview either 29th September in Dublin or 30th September in Belfast. Please note that the programme is by necessity highly selective, and that consequently, not all applicants will be interviewed and not all interviewees will be invited to participate.

To apply: Visit our website at http://www.bc.edu/irishinstitute for an application. The completed form, in addition to a letter of interest, must be returned by email to Ms. Thea Gilien at gilien@bc.edu before 5 p.m. GMT on Friday, 17th September. The mandatory letter of interest should include: reason for application, your ability to contribute to the programme, and potential for sharing your experience upon your return home. For further information, please visit our website or telephone (353) 1 614 7450.
