

ONE FAMILY AND WOMEN FOR ELECTION

INVITE YOU TO OUR SEMINAR

ENGAGING WOMEN: TAKING THE NEXT STEP INTO POLITICS

TUESDAY 21ST MAY 2013

Are you concerned about Irish society and policies? Are you interested in making a difference but don't know how? Would you like to learn more about all the different ways you can be more politically active? Presenting the personal journeys of well-known women - a community activist, a lobbyist and an elected TD - who make a difference politically every day of their lives, this lively and informative event, with Q&A, will inspire you to plan your next move.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Jessica N Grounds, Executive Director of Running Start, Founder of Solid Grounds Strategy & Training Lead for Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign for the Iowa Caucuses

MODERATOR:

Mary Wilson, Presenter, RTÉ Drivetime

ADDITIONAL SPEAKERS:

Ciara Conway T.D.; Rita Fagan, Community Activist;
Karen Kiernan, One Family; Niamh Gallagher, Women for Election

VENUE:

European Parliament Offices, 43 Molesworth Street, Dublin 2

TIME:

Registration & tea/coffee at 9.30am
Starts at 10.00am ends at 1.00pm

RSVP BY THURSDAY 16TH MAY 2013

Click here to RSVP

Attendance is free but as places are limited, booking is essential.

Tea and coffee will be served on arrival and a light lunch will follow the event.

Jessica Grounds is an Irish Institute exchange speaker. This event is co-sponsored by the Irish Institute, Boston College and the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs.

