“Too often we give children answers to remember rather than problems to solve.” – Roger Lewin

Hope everyone survived the blizzard and is now enjoying the sunshine! Please remember that there is no school for BPS next week!

- February 18-22 – BPS February Recess: No school

Read Boston Tutor Get-together
Join us for Crazy Dough pizza, an insightful film and discussion, and a chance to connect with other tutors!

Waiting for “Superman” Film Screening
Wednesday, Feb. 20th at 6:30pm
Fulton Hall 310

Midterm Reminder
It’s that time of the year, midterm season is here. Please remember that you are not excused from your tutoring responsibilities because of midterms.

Survey
We want to hear from you! You could win a $10 gift card to a local eatery just for completing a brief survey about your experiences as a Read Boston tutor!

Responses are anonymous, but if you do include your name on the last question, you can win a gift card! There will be 5 gift cards awarded. Please complete the survey by Friday, February 22nd. Thank you!

Tutoring Tip- Celebrate with reading

Here are some upcoming events and corresponding books for a variety of age groups.

- February is Black History Month - Amazing Grace, I am Rosa Parks, the Gold Cadillac
- March 2nd is Dr. Seuss' Birthday - The National Education Association’s Read Across America day is Friday, March 1st. It’s the nation’s largest reading event. Some favorite Dr. Seuss books include The Lorax, Oh, The Places You’ll Go! and Horton Hears a Who!
- April is National Poetry Month - Under the Sunday Tree, Hailstones and Halibut Bones, Dog Days- Rhymes around the Year

Check out these links for more resources:
- Literacy Calendar- http://www.readingrockets.org/calendar/
- NEA Read Across America Day

Have a fantastic weekend! Hope to see you Wednesday!