Give Yourself a Pat on the Back!

Having visited both Hamilton Elementary and the Winship School, I am proud to report that you all are doing amazing work!

All of the teachers that I spoke with had nothing but great things to say about you and the way you enable them to do so much more in their classrooms. Here are some quotes for encouragement:

"I would never be able to do all the things I do if it wasn't for my tutor."

"The kids love her...I think even more than me!"

"Send me a hundred more!"

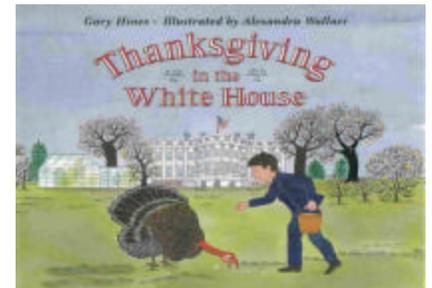

Reminders

- Please don't forget to sign in and out of the Read Boston timesheets located in the main office.
- If you are sick, please first contact your teacher or school and then contact me via email.
- There is NO SCHOOL on Friday, November 11th for Veterans' Day.
- If you work on Wednesdays, please notify your teacher that you will not be working on November 23rd as it begins the Thanksgiving Holiday observed by Boston College.

Attention all Winship Tutors

Heather Bobrowski has informed me that your help would be greatly appreciated during the after-school program. This would give you the opportunity to tutor the same child one-on-one every week. Hours for the after-school program are from 3:00-6:00pm; you can stay as long as you'd like. This is not only a great way to pick up more hours, but it's also a great way to make a difference!

Book Nook

Incorporate social studies and literature with Thanksgiving in the White House by Gary Hines. This book tells the humorous story of the first National Thanksgiving Celebration.

Abraham Lincoln's son, Tad Lincoln, was given a pet turkey named Jack. The only problem is that the turkey was given to the Lincoln family as a gift to be used (eaten) for Thanksgiving dinner. Will Jack be able to save his beloved pet turkey?
