Connections in the Arts

Making connections and finding opportunities in the arts and entertainment industry can be quite a challenge. So the Boston College Arts Council and the Alumni Association have collaborated to create this event, Networking Night for BC Alumni in the Arts, to give BC alumni an edge with more connections and more opportunities. We hope that you find this event useful in your career endeavors and that you can enjoy the experience of getting to know other BC artists from various classes.

About This Facebook

This "BC Artist Facebook" will help BC alumni working in the arts connect with each other to renew old friendships, make professional connections, and build the artists' network. The following profiles are from alumni that live locally as well as nationally and signify just how many BC alumni are in the arts and entertainment industry. The contact information is intended for professional uses only and must not be used for other reasons.

About The Boston College Arts Council

The mission of the Boston College Arts Council is to make the experience of art available and meaningful to the Boston College student body and to the wider university community and to share this with the greater Boston and international communities. The members of the BC Arts Council work to increase the visibility of the arts at Boston College, improve academic programs in the arts, enhance Boston College's national academic stature, strengthen participation in the arts, cultivate spaces for the arts on the BC campus and encourage the commitment to the arts within the BC community. The Council is composed of a committee of Boston College faculty and administrators representing all of the academic departments in the arts as well as student organizations, the Alumni Association and the University administration.

The Arts Council organizes the annual Arts Festival on campus, presents "Career Night for the Arts" and other career programs for BC student artists, and publishes the bi-annual arts calendar and monthly email "BC Arts Spotlight".

Please let us know about your career pursuits and put the BC Arts Council on your own artist mailing list. We want to stay in touch with you and hear what you are up to! If you might be interested in assisting BC students as they start new careers in the arts, please send an email to the address below. We look forward to hearing from you!

LOCATION Los Angeles, CA
PROFESSION(S) Literary Agent at Metropolitan Talent Agency
PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS/CREDITS/ORGANIZATIONS While the writers strike has put a considerable crimp in my business, I represent writers and directors of TV shows and features and TV movies. Currently I am working at Metropolitan Talent Agency. Before that I worked as a literary manager at Anonymous Content, and for 6 years before that I worked as an agent at a boutique literary agency called The Bruce Brown Agency.
BC CONNECTION I was involved in the Theater Dept. quite a bit. I was the Financial Director of The Contemporary Theatre for a couple of years. I stage managed all kinds of productions and had the chance to direct one play and act in a couple. I'm sure I went to class as well! And of course I spent too much time waiting tables at Papa-Razzi.
