M atthew Campbell, an award-winn ing Broadway orchestrator and music director, has been named the inaugural holder of the Rev. J. Donald Morian, S.J., Professorship in Theater Arts at Boston College for the 2008-09 academic year. As the Morian Professor, Campbell will lecture, conduct work shops, and direct a May production of the musical revue that made an immediate impact on the New York theater community.

The annual Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS concert, featuring Boston College alumni currently working as professional artists in the music, theater, and entertainment fields.

The production will take place on Saturday, May 30 at 7:30 p.m. in Robinson Theater. Tickets are $35 and proceeds benefit ASTEP (Kermit Moore Striving to End Poverty), see article left—and the Boston College Arts Council. For further information, visit www.bc.edu/artsfestival.
