Where do Eagles Fly? First Destination Data Class of 2014

Where are they now?

96% of students are employed, in graduate school, or engaged in other meaningful activities.

By Nov. 1, 2014, 6 months after graduation, data for 1,821 students (a knowledge rate* of 80%) of the Class of 2014 was collected.

The following numbers highlight a few of the programs and experiences that help Boston College students achieve their professional goals.

- 81% of students have done a practicum, internship, or field work.
- 7K and counting alumni have joined the Boston College Career Community on LinkedIn.
- $230K in grants to fund unpaid internships for students.

ABOUT THE SURVEY DATA
This data was collected from a Boston College survey administered online from March 2014 through October 2014 to all members of the undergraduate class of 2014. Further information is available upon request. To view a copy of the comprehensive survey data visit bc.edu/careers.

---

* Knowledge rate refers to the percentage of graduates for whom knowledge of their first destination career outcomes has been obtained. This includes survey data provided by students through Institutional Research, Planning, and Assessment; the National Student Clearinghouse; and knowledge shared by academic departments and other internal Boston College sources.