

Why Buy Local?

There are many benefits to buying local produce. In addition to supporting your local economy, buying local also reduces the use of fossil fuels, helps to protect the environment from harmful exhaust fumes and it also helps preserve land from being over developed.

Farmers Market

Thursdays
3:30pm to 6pm

*August 28th
September 4th
September 11th
September 18th
October 2nd*

Corcoran
Commons
Plaza

EAT.
DRINK.
TALK.
THINK.

Your Farmers Market

New England is home to some of the finest farms in the country. From McIntosh Apples to Heirloom Squash there are hundreds of fruits & vegetables to satisfy the most discriminating pallet.

Shopping your local farmers market is a great way to get great tasting produce as well as support your community. Enjoy.

Some of Our Local Growers

Arena Farms
Concord, MA

Eva's Garden
South Dartmouth, MA

Wilson Farms
North Adams, MA

PVGA
Western, MA

Jonathan's Sprouts
Marion, MA

Wards Berry Farm
Sharon, MA

Lanni Orchards
Lunenburg, MA

Nesenkeag Farms
Litchfield, NH

