Graduate Students Needed to Co-Facilitate Support/Discussion Group

Overview:
The Dean of Students Office offers support and outreach services to LGBTQ students on campus. We are seeking graduate students to co-facilitate the following weekly support and discussion groups for lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer and questioning students.

Horizon and Prism:
Horizon is a group for gay, bisexual, queer and questioning male and trans* students and Prism is a group for lesbian, bisexual, queer and questioning female and trans* students. The weekly discussion/support groups offer a private space for students to discuss and explore concerns related to gender, identity and sexual orientation while sharing and receiving peer support and are facilitated by graduate students.

Details:
The groups meet weekly and the time commitment for co-facilitators is 1-2 hours/week for a minimum of one semester. This is a volunteer position and training will be provided.

Interested graduate students should send an e-mail with resume and cover letter to:
