

BOSTON COLLEGE
ORIENTATION 2011
Student Program
CATCH THE BC SPIRIT

Action and Reflection

Boston College's motto, Ever to Excel, is reflected in two distinct ways. First, we are a community of learners—faculty and students who not only assimilate learning from the past but also seek to push the boundaries of the presently known. We seek to do the things that schools traditionally do, but in unique and exceptional ways. Second, we do this in the context of an overarching philosophical and theological framework called the Ignatian vision. We are people using our gifts in the service of others, and applying our knowledge and our commonly held values to the problems and contexts we confront daily. In order to be effective, this requires a continual dialectic between action and reflection, which the founder of the Jesuits, Ignatius of Loyola, required of his companions. In a real sense, we are contemplatives in action.

Dear Transfer Student,

Welcome to Orientation 2011 at Boston College. We have planned an exciting program to help you in your transition to Boston College. Orientation is a chance to get to know Boston College and to familiarize yourself with your new surroundings.

During the next three days, you will meet with deans, faculty advisors, students, and University administrators who will introduce you to the campus community and to the many new and challenging experiences awaiting you at Boston College. Throughout the program, student Orientation Leaders—carefully selected and trained sophomores, juniors, and seniors—will be your guides. They are excellent sources of information and will be happy to answer any questions you may have throughout Orientation. You will meet with a faculty advisor who will help you to construct an academic schedule for the fall semester. Within the orientation session, you will register for the courses you have selected.

Your arrival at Boston College marks the beginning of a very important and significant journey. We are here to make sure you get off to a good start. We hope you find Orientation 2011 useful and engaging. Catch the BC spirit!

Sincerely,

Boston College Fight Song

For Boston

For Boston, for Boston,
We sing our proud refrain!

For Boston, for Boston,
'Tis Wisdom's earthly fane.
For here all are one and their hearts are true,
And the towers on the Heights
Reach to Heav'ns own blue.

For Boston, for Boston,
Till the echoes ring again!
