Position: Graduate Assistant for Cultural Competency Education

Reports to: Tiffany Enos, Assistant Director

Objective of Position: Provide general support for trainings on cultural competency and the Bowman Advocates for Inclusive Culture Leadership Program which includes Dialogues on Race and Campus of Difference

Commitment: 20 hours a week, for the full academic year. A two-year commitment is preferred.

Fall 2017: Monday, August 21, 2017 – Friday, December 8, 2017
Spring 2018: Tuesday, January 16, 2018 – Friday, May 4, 2018

Compensation: This is a paid hourly position at $12/hr

Responsibilities:
1. Assist in the recruitment, training, and supervision of the Bowman Advocates for Inclusive Culture Leadership Program
2. Participate in weekly Bowman Advocate meetings and conduct weekly debrief sessions for Dialogues on Race specifically
3. Coordinate Dialogues on Race program including recruitment, logistics, and assessment reporting each semester
4. Coordinate the implementation of the Campus of Difference program for first-year students (Fall 2017 will mark year two of the pilot program)
5. Co-facilitate cultural competency education workshops as needed
6. Other duties as assigned

Qualifications:
- MA student in the higher education or counseling psychology program
- Experience/interest in facilitating social justice and/or cultural competency workshops
- Interest in multicultural student affairs, and ability to work with a diverse population of undergraduate and graduate students and administrators
- Strong written/oral communication and organization skills
- Ability to multi-task and adapt easily
- Ability to meet deadlines and otherwise act responsibly

Application: Interested candidates should email resume and cover letter to Tiffany Enos at enost@bc.edu

About the Thea Bowman AHANA and Intercultural Center: As part of the Division of Student Affairs, the Thea Bowman AHANA and Intercultural Center (BAIC) aspires to improve/provide services for all students to achieve their goals. In addition to coordinating a number of ongoing programs (e.g. Options Through Education, Dialogues on Race, Campus of Difference and Benjamin E. Mays Mentoring Program), BAIC also sponsors and co-sponsors activities/events to provide students with additional opportunities for academic and personal development.

The mission of the Thea Bowman AHANA and Intercultural Center is to support undergraduate students, with a particular focus on AHANA and multicultural students, in navigating college life and to promote a welcoming environment that facilitates student learning and formation, integrating their intellectual, cultural, spiritual, and social development.