BOSTON COLLEGE
GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION
CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We, the graduate students of Boston College, including the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Lynch Graduate School of Education, the Carroll Graduate School of Management, the Connell Graduate School of Nursing, the Graduate School of Social Work, and the School of Theology and Ministry, in order to establish ourselves as an association of the greater Boston College community, do declare and constitute our association in accordance with the following fundamental principles:

We hereby affirm that the rights and privileges of graduate students will not in any way be violated or abridged for reasons of age, race, sex, gender, school, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, religion, or political affiliation. We affirm that no graduate student should be subject to hazing of any kind. All graduate students ought to abide by this principle in their relations with all members of the Boston College community. We further declare our recognition of the necessity for active support of all actions by individuals or groups which are seeking to ensure that university life be conducted in accordance with this principle.

We hereby affirm that all graduate students will be the primary concern of the Graduate Student Association (hereafter referred to as the GSA). The GSA exists to meet the needs of graduate students and is an advocate on issues regarding university policies.

We hereby affirm that the graduate students of Boston College have the right and responsibility to participate actively in all University matters that are relevant to the lives of the graduate student body. The graduate students of Boston College have the right to participate in and have audience with University committees and offices dedicated to graduate education and all aspects of University life. These rights will be acted upon by the graduate students via GSA representation.

By means of this Preamble, we affirm our position and principles as fully participating and concerned members of the Boston College community. We affirm our right and our intention to use the means necessary to ensure the implementation of these principles through the effective representation of the interests of the graduate student body in the decision-making processes of the University. We affirm that it is our sincere desire to work together with all members of the Boston College community in an effort to improve University life for the Boston College community as a whole.
ARTICLE I. - PURPOSE
1. The GSA will represent the interests of its members in their relations with the other members of the Boston College community and will strive to improve the general quality of the University as a whole. The GSA will establish and facilitate programs which are designed to meet the academic, social, and personal needs of all graduate students, and to ensure that the activities of graduate students are conducted in accordance with the principles established in the Preamble of this Constitution. The GSA will provide general information and services to graduate students concerning all aspects of University life.

ARTICLE II. – MEMBERSHIP
1. Any student who pays a graduate student activities fee and is currently enrolled (including part-time and full-time) at Boston College is a member of the GSA.

ARTICLE III. – EXECUTIVE BOARD
Section 1 – Executive Membership
1. The Executive Board is the senior leadership body of the GSA.
2. The Executive Board consists of the Director of Outreach and Advocacy, Director of Programming, and Financial Director
3. The Executive Board members shall be selected through an interview process conducted by the Office of Graduate Student Life in consultation with the current Executive Board members and the Senate

Section 2 – Duties
1. Executive Board members are expected to attend all GSA Executive Board and GSA Senate meetings and meet individually on a weekly basis with the Director/Associate Dean of Office of Graduate Student Life. Executive Board members, along with the Office of Graduate Student Life, are responsible for distributing funds to be used for graduate and research projects as well as graduate student group events. Executive Board members shall be responsible in the summer to set the general agenda and budget proposal for the year. In the event that an Executive Board member cannot complete his/her term, that Executive Board member will no longer be eligible to receive the stipend

2. The Director of Outreach & Advocacy calls and presides over meetings of the GSA Senate. The Director of Outreach & Advocacy serves as the spokesperson for the graduate and professional student community to the administration of Boston College and serves on a number of university committees. The Director of Outreach & Advocacy is responsible for advocating on behalf of all Boston College graduate and professional students. The Director of Outreach & Advocacy is involved in the design and creation of GSA programming as well as assisting in the planning of the graduate and professional student orientation. The Director of Outreach & Advocacy communicates regularly with the Boston College graduate and professional student community as well as the constituent schools and groups of the GSA.

3. The Director of Programming serves as the internal conduit for communication within the GSA. Primary responsibilities include coordinating all programming conducted by the GSA. This includes, but is not limited to Grad Night Out and New Graduate and Professional Student Orientation. The Director of Programming will also coordinate programs around spirituality, scholarship and excellence, and service.

4. The Financial Director oversees the allocation and administration of all GSA funds. The Financial Director keeps the financial records of the GSA and ensures that the official GSA annual budget is adhered to by the Executive Board and the members of the GSA through an internal audit.
Financial Director serves as the primary contact person for GSA members regarding all financial issues and holds 20 weekly office hours at the Murray Graduate Student Center. The Financial Director trains all organization treasurers and serves as the primary liaison between the Budget Office, Student Services and other Boston College administrative offices, as well as serving on any special Funding Committees.
