Preparing for Study Abroad

- To maximize the study abroad experience, students should prepare themselves by learning about their host country, its history, and culture. Students might want to begin with: www.economist.com/countries or <http://www.britannica.com/> for a summary.
- Students should know what is happening in the news in the host city by reading the local newspaper at: <http://www.newspapers24.com/world-cities/madrid-newspapers/>
- Engaging with and adapting to a different culture is an inherent component of study abroad. Students may find the following websites useful to learn about intercultural communication before they leave home: <http://www.pacific.edu/sis/culture/> and <http://www.peacecorps.gov/wvs/educators/enrichment/culturematters/index.html>
- Customs and traditions in the host country are different from those at home. To learn a little about the local customs and traditions students may want to visit the following website: www.hthstudents.com
- Students and their parents should refer to the Office of International Programs website (www.bc.edu/international) and specifically to the Study Abroad Handbook for more information regarding the experience abroad.
- Prior to departure, students will meet with their International Study Advisor at an orientation to help them further prepare for their study-abroad experience.

On-Site Contact Information

- Patricia Gayle Witzig, the Boston College On-Site Coordinator, is available in case of an emergency on a 24-hour-basis. Students should make a note of Patricia's contact information before they go abroad, and we encourage students to share this information with their family.

Travel Information

- Students are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. BC in Madrid Complutense students will be met at the airport and picked up the official arrival day, provided they supply the necessary travel information one month prior to departure to the on-site coordinator, Patricia Gayle Witzig.
- Passport/Visa information:
Students will need to obtain the following travel documents in order to study in Spain:
A passport (valid at least six months beyond the estimated return date).
A student visa (students should visit the Consulate of Spain's website for information regarding student visa requirements and procedures). Their website is:
<http://www.maec.es/subwebs/Consulados/Boston/es/home/Paginas/Home.aspx>
- Students will receive visa workshop and pre-departure orientation information via e-mail. All workshops and orientations are mandatory. Drop-in hours for visas are Fridays from 2-5pm.

Wellness, Health and Safety

- HTH Worldwide Insurance Services is an emergency health and emergency services provider. All registered BC students are covered by OIP's blanket policy while living and traveling outside of the United States. For more information, visit the following website:
<http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/travel-health-safety.html>
- Students are advised to visit the U.S. State Department website: <http://www.state.gov/> for important travel information including travel advisories.
- Adjusting to a new culture and environment can be stressful. Students will have a smoother transition by making sure that they prepare to remain healthy. Following are some websites that provide important information and advice about how to have a healthy and safe experience abroad:
http://kidshealth.org/teen/your_mind/emotions/culture_shock.html

<http://www.kwintessential.co.uk/cultural-services/articles/cultureshock-stages.html>
<http://www.bravenewtraveler.com/2007/11/20/the-4-stages-of-culture-shock-and-how-to-beat-them/>

- Students are required to visit the OIP website for additional information about Health and Safety:

<http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/travel-health-safety.html>

BC emergency contact information:

OIP (617) 552-3827 (Monday to Friday 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.)

BCPD (617) 552-4444 (outside of normal business hours)

- Alcohol and Drugs

In many cultures, alcohol consumption is an acceptable part of the culture and people are taught to drink in moderation at home. Many countries have a lower drinking age than the U.S. while other countries have drinking and drug abuse laws that may be more severe. Students are subject to the laws of their host country, so if students choose to drink alcohol abroad, they should always drink responsibly and be knowledgeable about their host country's laws by visiting:

http://travel.state.gov/travel/tips/tips_1232.html#drug_offenses

Finances

- The OIP website provides information about estimated expenses for study abroad:
<http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/offices/international/financesawards.html>
- Banking information: Students are encouraged to use ATM machines. Please contact on-site coordinator.
- Scholarships and Financial Aid information can be found at:
http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/Scholarship_Opportunities.html

Returning to BC

- Students should complete a Program Evaluation. Upon completion of their program, OIP will e-mail the link to the evaluation
- Students may mentor an exchange student from the host university by contacting oipexchange@bc.edu
- Students may volunteer for Discovery Night, Pre-departure Orientation, Re-entry seminar by contacting the International Study Advisor, Elizabeth Goizueta at e-mail address Goizueta@bc.edu.
- It is not uncommon when students return from studying abroad to experience “reverse” culture shock. The following may help students transition back to home:
