Students may begin researching courses prior to departure by visiting the course selection links below. The Reception and Mobility Office of UPF will officially register students for courses before going abroad.

Students interested in enrolling in Prof. Nandín's course, Cultura y civilización española, should contact Prof. Nandín or Prof. Goizueta for course syllabus.

Hispanic and European Studies Program (HESP)

HESP classes (designed specifically for foreign students) are all taught in Castilian-Spanish and English. This program is designed for international students, but has a small enrollment of Spanish students at the advanced levels. It offers several courses on Spanish history, economics, society, politics, and similar cultural topics.

Students can access the website by following the instructions below:
