Students may begin researching courses prior to departure by visiting the course selection links below. Once students arrive in Buenos Aires, they will register for courses.

Students must remember that BC spring semester corresponds to the UTDT's Primer semestre and BC fall semester corresponds to the UTDT's Segundo semestre.

Information about the courses offered at UTDT can be found by following the instructions below:

Click the following link: <http://www.utdt.edu/>

- Click on "International Programs" in the left sidebar
- Click on "International Programs (Incoming Students)"
- Click on "Course Registration"
- Click on "IPO courses offered in 2013" to download the PDF
- Scroll down the document to view course offerings (written in both Spanish and English) for Business, Economics, History, International Studies, Politics, Law, and Journalism.
- To see a course description, click on the number to the left of the course.

Students interested in business can visit the following links for course syllabi:

Escuela de Negocios (Licenciatura en Economía Empresarial):
