- the thirty-five largest in the U.S. The Brighton-Allston Boston College Neighborhood Center was established.
- 1996 The Law School's new library was completed and opened on the Newton campus in January. U.S. News & World Report ranked Boston College 16th among the nation's teaching universities and 37th in the national university category. The student residence at 70 St. Thomas More Road was named Thomas A. and Margaret A. Vanderslice Hall; the nearby residence building at number 80 was named Gabelli Hall; and the Art Museum became the Charles S. and Isabella V. McMullen Museum of Art. On July 31, Father Monan's 24-year presidency ended, and on October 18 Father William P. Leahy, S.J., was inaugurated as the 25th president of Boston College.
- 1997 In a rating of graduate schools, U.S. News & World Report placed Boston College Law School 22nd in its field, while the Graduate School of Social Work was ranked 14th, the School of Nursing 27th, and the School of Education 28th. In March, Father Leahy was homilist at the annual St. Patrick's Day Mass at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross.
- 1998 In October, Irish President Mary McAleese visited the campus for the formal opening of the Irish Institute and the Irish Studies Program at Connolly House. Rev. Joseph Appleyard, S.J., was named as the first vice president for University Mission and Ministry. Work began on a three-year project to renovate and expand Higgins Hall, which houses the Biology and Physics departments. U.S. News & World Report rated the BC schools of law, education, and nursing among the top 25 in their fields. BC undergraduates won more than 20 prestigious national fellowships, including a dozen Fulbrights and a coveted Marshall Scholarship.
- 1999 BC's School of Education was named the Peter S. and Carolyn A. Lynch School of Education in recognition of the couple's gift of more than $10 million. For the fifth consecutive year, BC was ranked among the top 40 national universities by U.S. News & World Report. The biggest leap in BC's standing was "faculty resources," where BC moved up to 54th place from 87th place two years earlier. BC also ranked fifth in the nation in graduating football players. The McMullen Museum of Art's exhibition, Saints and Sinners: Caravaggio and the Baroque Image, attracted more than 65,000 visitors to the campus. BC announced a $400 million "Ever to Excel" capital campaign, with an anonymous donor pledging $20 million.
- 2000 The annual U.S. News & World Report survey ranked Boston College 38th among the nation's 228 national universities. BC, Notre Dame, and Georgetown were the only Catholic universities in the top 40. BC was ranked 5th for applications received by national private universities for freshman admission. A prayer book providing a background of the Jesuit academic experience with a brief history of Boston College was distributed to incoming students and faculty members by the Center for Ignatian Spirituality. Geoffrey and Rene Boisi committed $5 million to establish the Center for Religion and American Public Life, directed by social scientist Alan Wolfe, who joined the political science faculty. BC appointed a husband and wife team to a joint position for a single chair. Sheila Blair and Jonathan Bloom, both art research scholars, will share the Norma Jean Calderwood Chair in Islamic and Asian Art.
- 2001 The BC School of Nursing was renamed the William F. Connell School of Nursing in honor of longtime trustee, William F. Connell, '59, a devoted alumnus who donated $10 million to the school. After defeating Maine and Michigan, the BC hockey team went on to win the NCAA Championship by defeating North Dakota in sudden-death overtime. A $2 million grant from the Lilly Endowment supports a BC program to develop programs and resources to encourage students to integrate faith and career. BC has established a permanent Dublin home, on St. Stephens Green, as a resource for the university's Irish Studies Program, the Burns Library, and international student programs.
- 2002 Boston College received a record number of undergraduate applications for the 2002-2003 academic year, with more than 21,000 applicants for the approximately 2,200 available seats. The March issue of U.S. News & World Report cites BC as one of 20 schools recognized for overall athletic achievement, including the graduation rate of its varsity athletes. In the April issue, the magazine moved the Carroll Graduate School up two places to rank as 39th in the nation. BC's Law School remained in 22nd place nationally, and the graduate program of the Lynch School of Education, celebrating the 50th year of its founding, moved up into 21st position, the only Catholic graduate education program in the top 40. During the 2001-2002 school year, some $28 million in grant money was applied to ongoing research projects, with an estimated $39 million in grants received for future research. With a gift of $5 million from the family of Katherine B. and Robert M. Devlin, the former Evening College has been renamed the Woods College of Advancing Studies in honor of Rev. James A. Woods, S.J., who has served as dean of the school for 34 years. President William P. Leahy, S.J., announced that Boston College will develop a "special academic focus" for the next two years to examine issues relating to the sexual misconduct scandal in the Catholic Church. The initiative, called "The Church in the 21st Century," was launched in September 2002, with an open forum that drew an audience of some 4,000 persons to hear a series of speakers.
