The Jesuit Community at Boston College

With 113 members, the Jesuit Community at Boston College is one of the largest communities in the Society of Jesus. Fifty-four Jesuits serve in the University as members of the administration, faculty, or staff, working either full-time or part-time. A number of Jesuits in the community also offer Ignatian retreats and spiritual direction to faculty, staff, and students. There are 27 Jesuits from more than 20 different countries around the world who are studying for graduate degrees at the University or who are here as visiting scholars.

The main community residence is St. Mary’s Hall, but there are also five smaller communities around the perimeter of the campus. Eight Jesuits live in the student residence halls and the four Jesuits who staff St. Ignatius Parish are also part of the Boston College Jesuit Community.
