Rabbi James Rudin

CUSHING, SPELLMAN, O'CONNOR: The Surprising Story of How Three American Cardinals Transformed Catholic-Jewish Relations

Tuesday, February 7, 2012

5:30-7:30 p.m.

Yawkey Center, Murray Function Room
Boston College Chestnut Hill Campus

In his latest book, Rabbi James Rudin, who has made a career of writing about and participating in interreligious dialogue, demonstrates how Cardinals Richard Cushing and Francis Spellman influenced the Second Vatican Council to adopt Nostra Aetate—a statement against anti-Semitism—and how Cardinal John O'Connor transformed that document's sentiments into practical results a generation later.

Rabbi Rudin is Distinguished Visiting Professor of Religion and Judaica at Saint Leo University and Senior Interreligious Advisor for the American Jewish Committee.

This event is open to the public.

Please RSVP to cjlearning@bc.edu if you plan on attending the event.
