Presents as part of its Jewish-Christian Lecture Series

Dr. Raphael Jospe

Zion and Zionism in Jewish and Christian Thought and History

Tuesday, April 21, 2015
Cushing Hall 333
3:00-4:15 p.m.
Boston College Chestnut Hill Campus

Dr. Raphael Jospe is professor of Jewish philosophy at Ariel University, and previously taught at Bar Ilan University and the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He received his Ph.D. from Brandeis University, and is the author of eight books in Jewish philosophy (three in Hebrew, five in English), and the editor of ten books. He also served as editor of the Jewish philosophy division of the Encyclopaedia Judaica (2nd edition), and is editor of Jewish philosophy for the new Encyclopaedia Hebraica. His inter-religious activities have included lecturing at the Vatican for the Israeli Foreign Ministry and at the World Council of Churches. He and his wife live in Jerusalem and have seven children; Dr. Jospe is a major in the Israeli Defense Forces (reserves).

All are welcome but space is limited.
Please email cjlearning@bc.edu if you would like to attend.

www.bc.edu/cjlearning