

College of Arts and Sciences
Educational Policy Committee Meeting

Minutes of the #408 Meeting
Thursday, November 1, 2007

- I. Akua passed out the minutes of the last meeting from last year.

- II. Review of last year's subcommittee's major issues: Academic Affairs, Honors, Appeals.

- III. New agendas for this year.
 - A. Academic Affairs.
Will be reviewing the Islamic Civilizations and Culture Major.
The School of Ed has proposed an Inclusive Education Minor.
Undergraduate TAs.
A Community Service Research Seminar proposed by AHANA students.
Guidelines for undergraduate Readings and Research courses.

It was agreed that some of the Academic Affairs Committee agenda may be devolved to other subcommittees.

 - B. Honors' Committee:
Four independent major proposals.
The GPA requirement for Cross and Crown needs to be revisited because of grade compression: uniformly high GPAs make it difficult to identify the truly outstanding students.
