Blacks in Boston Conference
CALL FOR PAPERS

“Blacks in Boston: Black ... and Immigrant”
Saturday, 2 April 2016
Website: http://www.bc.edu/centers/ila/events/blacks-in-boston.html

This theme is designed to engage current issues in the US immigration debate, and to explore what black immigrants and immigration bring to this conversation.

Conference organizers encourage submissions on the following topics:

- Definitions of “black” in sending and receiving countries
- Citizenship and belonging for black Americans
- Making home – social and cultural contributions (Music, Visual Arts, Literature) to the receiving country
- Immigration as a black civil rights issue
- Waves of black immigration to Boston/Massachusetts/New England from the Caribbean, Africa, and Central and South America
- Black, immigrant, and the nation

All submissions must include: name, institutional affiliation AND status at institution, preferred email and mailing address, preferred phone number, and paper abstract (must not exceed 250 words).

All proposal materials must be submitted by Thursday, 15 October 2015, 11:59 pm EST via INTERFOLIO at http://apply.interfolio.com/30246.
