I. General Works

II. The Migration Process

Hoerder, Dirk and Jorg Nagler. People in Transit: German Migration in Comparative Perspective, 1820-1930.

III. Theories: Nativism, Americanization, ethnicity, assimilation, and cultural pluralism

IV. Race, Labor, and Gender Relations

Gerstle, Gary. American Crucible: Race and Nation in the Twentieth Century.

V. Urban life and culture

Thernstrom, Steven. Poverty and Progress: Social Mobility in a Nineteenth Century City (1964)

Thernstrom, Steven. The Other Bostonians: Poverty and Progress in the American Metropolis

VI. Religion

VII. Memory, identity, and diaspora

VIII. Role of Non-European Immigrants; Changing Immigration Policies and Politics

Foner, Nancy. From Ellis Island to JFK: New York’s Two Great Waves of Immigration.

Sanchez, George. Becoming Mexican American: Ethnicity, Culture, and Identity in Chicano Los Angeles, 1900-1945.
