14TH ANNUAL PHILOSOPHY GRADUATE CONFERENCE
BOSTON COLLEGE, MARCH 15-16, 2013 • GASSON HALL, 305

Philosophies of Religion and Secularity

KEYNOTES

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 15
Richard Kearney, Boston College
ANATHEISM: BETWEEN THE SECULAR AND THE SACRED

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 16
James Swindal, Duquesne University
DOING WHAT COMES NORMATIVELY: AGENCY IN A SECULAR AGE

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 16
James Hart, Indiana University
SECULARISM AND FAITH IN IMMORTALITY

FRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 15
PHILOSOPHIES OF CULTURE: SECULAR AND SACRED
4:00 PM - 6:15 PM
Care and Liturgy in Lacoste and Heidegger
Marina Denischik, Boston College
Paul Ricouer: Philosophy in the Face of the Wholly Other
Timo Helenius, Boston College

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 16
REASON AND RELIGION IN THE PUBLIC SPHERE
9:30 AM - 12:30 PM
From Secular to Sacred: Towards a Theory of Consecration
James Arcadi, University of Bristol
Spinoza and Public Philosophy
Zoe Anthony, University of Toronto
Religious Reasons in the Public Sphere: A Challenge to Habermas
Joshua Duclos, Boston University

SATURDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 16
PHENOMENOLOGY AND RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE
1:45 PM - 5:00 PM
Primordiality and Postmodernity: Revisiting Heidegger on Saint Paul
Jim Bodington, University of New Mexico
The Humility of Philosophy: Jean-Luc Marion and the Philosophy of Givenness
Andrew Jampol-Petzinger, Fordham University
Redeemed From Redemption
Hayyim Rothman, Boston College

ALL EVENTS ARE IN GASSON 305