THE ROAD FROM THE PARIS CLIMATE AGREEMENT

MONDAY, APRIL 24 • 7:00 PM • FULTON 511

With Andrew Light, University Professor & Director, Institute for Philosophy & Public Policy, George Mason University; Distinguished Senior Fellow in the Climate Program, World Resources Institute, Washington, DC.

From 2013-2016, Professor Light served as Senior Adviser and India Counselor to the US Special Envoy on Climate Change, and as a Staff Climate Adviser in the Secretary of State’s Office of Policy Planning in the US Department of State. In this capacity, he was Co-Chair of the US-India Joint Working Group on Combating Climate Change, Chair of the Interagency Climate Working Group on the Sustainable Development Goals, and served on the senior strategy team for the UN climate negotiations.

Sponsored by the Philosophy Department and the Clough Center for the Study of Constitutional Democracy

Contact David Storey at david.storey@bc.edu with questions.

THIS EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.