#EmbraceYourSpace

A social media initiative led by five Boston College women who aim to address and bring awareness to the ways in which people’s spaces are constricted or violated physically, verbally, and mentally in a patriarchal society.

The #EmbraceYourSpace team plans to draw attention to everyday situations, especially those witnessed at Boston College, such as unwelcome touching at parties, verbal sexual harassment, and male-dominated areas such as the big weight section of the Plex. Support the initiative by liking #EmbraceYourSpace’s page here and sharing posts that you find striking.
