The WRC presents

UnCovered
a new book club & discussion group

WHEN: Thursday, September 29th at 5 PM

WHERE: Women’s Resource Center in McElroy 141

WITH WHOM: Professor Abigail Brooks from the Sociology Department

DISCUSSION THEMATICS: Sexualization, Medicalization and Objectification of the Female Body Through the Life Course

CONTACT THE WRC FOR THE READING LIST, WITH ANY QUESTIONS, OR IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO RSVP - wrc@bc.edu

---

The Lowell Humanities Series presents:

Isabel Wilkerson: The Warmth of Other Suns

Wednesday, October 5th, 7 PM in Gasson 100

Isabel Wilkerson, Professor of Journalism and Director of Narrative Nonfiction at Boston University, was the first black woman to be awarded a Pulitzer Prize in journalism and the first black American to win for individual reporting. She received a John Simon Guggenheim Fellowship to complete the research for The Warmth of Other Suns, her epic account of the Great Migration, which also won the Mark Lynton History Prize.
BOSTON COLLEGE
WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES PROGRAM

LOVE YOUR BODY WEEK PRESENTS:

TRICIA ROSE

Tuesday, October 25th
McGuinn 121
7:30 pm
FREE EVENT

Questions? Email gender@bc.edu
African American Spirituals
Amidst Scripture as Embodied Transformation

With presenter Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, professor of theology and women's studies, Shaw University Divinity School

Tuesday, October 11, 2011 | 5:30 p.m.
Heights Room, Corcoran Commons

This presentation provides an overview of African American Spirituals, their connection with Scripture, and how the living and performance of these “chants of collective exorcism served as transformative bolsters of courage and faith during the antebellum and Civil Rights Eras. Parallels will also be drawn between the Spirituals and selected Hip Hop music.

ATTENTION: SOPHOMORE, JUNIOR, & SENIOR GIRL SCIENCE MAJORS/MINORS

Be a part of the Women in Science and Technology Program at BC this spring!

Lead high school girls in science experiments at BC on Saturday afternoons.

Join us at the Women in Science and Technology information session to find out how you can be a part of the 8th annual program!

Wednesday 10/5 @ 7:00 PM, Rubenstein D51

QUESTIONS? EMAIL WOMENINSCIENCEANDTECH@GMAIL.COM
Want to get published?

Voices, the academic journal of the Women’s and Gender Studies Program, is now accepting submissions on a rolling basis.

We welcome all original academic papers written by BC undergrad and grad students on any topic related to women’s and gender studies, including those previously written for a class.

Want to get involved with Voices?

We are currently accepting applications for the ’11-’12 Voices Editorial Committee. We are looking for people interested in publishing, editing, web design, and/or graphic design. Undergraduate and Graduate students welcome!

For more information or to request an application, email voicesbc@gmail.com

HEY SENIORS!

Graduation is just around the corner! Be sure to check your course requirements to make sure you are on-track to meet all the requirements of the Women’s and Gender Studies minor.

Required
Intro to Feminisms (EN125, HS148, SC225) & Colloquium in Women’s and Gender Studies (CO593)

+ Four Electives

Check out the course lists on http://www.bc.edu/schools/cas/ws/ or email gender@bc.edu if you have any questions about whether or not your course meets minor requirements.
The Women’s and Gender Studies Program at Boston College places emphasis on the study of gender across time and space with a global perspective on feminism.

Interdisciplinary Minor
2 Required Courses:
> Introduction to Feminisms
> Colloquium in Women’s and Gender Studies
+ 4 Electives

Carney 270 and 271
140 Commonwealth Avenue
Chestnut Hill, MA

www.bc.edu/wgs
gender@bc.edu

Twitter: BCWomensStudies
Facebook: Jane Gender

Want to submit an event?
Email us at: gender@bc.edu