This week EVENTS

MONDAY, OCTOBER 9

Columbus Day - No classes

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Lunch with an Entrepreneur featuring Eric Tarczynski
12:00-1:00 pm in Stokes N201
Join us for lunch with Eric Tarczynski, Founder of Contrary Capital! Discuss Eric’s journey in venture capital, then network with Eric & fellow students interested in entrepreneurship. Learn about the story of Contrary (and how his background as a student-entrepreneur lead to its eventual creation), what they’re up to now, and have any burning questions that you might have about venture capital answered. Contrary Capital is a decentralized, university-focused venture capital fund with a laser focus on investing in and supporting the best and brightest university entrepreneurs. Eric started Contrary after spending time as an early employee at YC-backed Kamcord and co-founding two companies - a mobile payments start-up and quant hedge fund - while in school right down the road at Northeastern. Lunch is provided by the Shea Center for Entrepreneurship. Register here to reserve a spot!

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11

Dean’s Coffee

1:00-3:00 pm in the Fulton Honors Common
Featuring guest employer: Venture for America

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12

3:30 pm in Devlin 008

The biology department is going to be hosting an alumni seminar, featuring Alex Lorestani ’09, the CEO of Geltor Inc., a company based out of San Leandro, CA. Geltor’s primary focus is on the production of vegan gelatin. Alex's seminar will focus on his time here at Boston College and how it helped prepare him for his current role of leading a company that is solving a current economic and environmental need through biology.
EY Peer Advisors Drop-in Hours

EY Peer Advisors can help with course registration, internship search, and mock interviews. Their drop in hours take place in Fulton 315 and the schedule can be found at www.bc.edu/carrollpeeradvisor.

Dean’s Office Drop-in Hours

The Dean’s Office has drop-in hours every week to help answer your questions about courses, studying abroad, concentrations, or any other curriculum related questions. All drop in hours will be in Fulton 315

Monday, 10:00am-12:00pm; 1:00-3:00 pm
Tuesday, 10:00-12:00pm; 1:00-3:00 pm
Thursday, 10:00am-12:00pm; 1:00-3:00 pm

Are you thinking about studying abroad?

1. Visit the Getting Started page to begin planning your study abroad experience. With your academic goals and interests in mind, research different types of programs.
2. Complete the Advising Questionnaire by clicking the ‘Apply Now’ button on any program page. This is required to continue in the process.
3. Schedule a Study Abroad 101 Meeting. Montserrat students are encouraged to schedule a meeting with the Montserrat Advisor next. Visit the Meeting with the OIP page for more details.
4. Continue to research programs and note questions or concerns for your next meeting with an OIP Advisor. Students should consider how going abroad fits their academic plans and speak to their academic department about what courses may count. Learn about scholarships and grants.

Note: A select number of organizations are on EagleLink and will accept sophomore applicants. As all available internships are not listed here, please see the attached document or visit EagleLink (www.bc.edu/eagelink) for a full list of postings.

Marketing Career Advising with Prof. Mojo

Not sure what job you want in marketing? Confused by the recruitment process? Meet with Prof. Jean Mojo to learn more about career paths in Marketing and determine where to focus your efforts. Prof. Mojo was the CEO of a WPP Group Agency as well as having worked in Brand Management for a Consumer Goods Company. She can help you understand the various marketing careers, better understand the marketing recruitment process and guide your search process. Prof. Mojo meets with students on campus every Thursday between 11-2 or on phone sessions on Mondays between 2-5. Schedule a meeting or phone call at goo.gl/7zyKM.

Internship Opportunity: Office of the Governor

Have an interest in public service? Want to spend time gaining a valuable experience and first-hand education in the inner workings of government? Governor Charles D. Baker’s office is seeking highly motivated undergraduates students interested in a hands-on learning experience in various departments. While the specific duties of interns are determined by the office directors, all internships have in common the expectation that interns will cover phones, do filing, mail processing, data entry, and routine office chores, in addition to any specific projects or tasks assigned. All majors and class years are encouraged to apply! The deadline to submit an application (see attachment) is October 31st. If you have any questions, please visit https://www.mass.gov/governors-internship-program or contact governor.internship@massmail.state.ma.us.

Internship Opportunity: Boston Scientific

As a global medical device leader, Boston Scientific strives to create innovative products, technologies, and services to improve the health of patients around the world. We’re currently looking for Summer 2018 HR interns across an array of areas including HR Operations, Analytics, Compensation & Benefits, Talent Acquisition, and Business Partner support. We will be hosting a virtual showcase on Wednesday, October 18th from 4-5pm to share more about our company, culture, and the internship opportunities available at Boston Scientific. Interested students can register using the following link: http://tinyurl.com/y9d8789p. Click here to learn more about Boston Scientific student opportunities.

BC Portfolio Challenge Signups

For all those interested, signups for the Boston College Portfolio Challenge have gone live. An email with signup details has been sent to those on the listserv, but for those who don't have the information, please email bcportfoliochallenge@gmail.com.

“Coordinator” Positions Available with BC Gavel

The Gavel is looking to fill two open positions: one on the marketing team and one on the development team. The development team coordinates with local businesses to hold fundraisers, manages the newspaper’s money, and is in charge of advertising. Alternatively, the marketing team manages the paper’s image (through social media), coordinates with other BC clubs to hold collaborative events, and raises awareness about the paper. Neither of these positions are responsible for writing articles. If interested, contact Jackson Slaughter at slaughtj@bc.edu or Mariam Ahmed at ahmedma@bc.edu.

Save the Date: Boston College Women’s Summit

Saturday, October 21st, 9:30 am-3:30 pm, Robsham Theater

The Boston College Women’s Summit, formerly known as Own It, is designed to empower all attendees by connecting them with a community of fellow classmates, speakers, and guests, and with the purpose of creating discussion at BC about women’s empowerment. This year’s Summit will be taking place on Saturday, October 21 with a morning keynote by Ayanna Pressley, Boston City Councilor At-Large. It will feature 17 other speakers covering a variety of topics from Intersectionality to Faith in Feminism to Resilience. We hope to see you there!

Take Home Professor is back: 10 left!

Invite a professor to dinner in your residence hall or apartment and you will receive a $100.00 allowance to a grocery store to pay for the ingredients. Contact the professor and come up with a date and time for the dinner.

Once the plans are set, send one email to all the participants and Terry Rezzuti (rezzuti@bc.edu) with the date, time, and location.

The rules are as follows:

1. Students must be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the Carroll School.
2. There must be at least three Carroll School students attending the dinner with the professor.
3. If you have a kitchen in your apartment on or off-campus, students will cook the professor dinner.
4. If you don't have a kitchen, you can get take-out for the professor.
5. Professors can only attend one dinner per semester. So act fast if you want to invite a particular professor!
6. There are only 13 Take Home Prof events per semester.
7. A picture must be taken and submitted to Terry at rezzuti@bc.edu for proof.

Announcing New Program: Lunch with a Professor

Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!)

The Carroll School of Management introduces “Lunch with a Professor.” We will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!

Here is how you do it:

1. Only one person can reserve the card each day. Before you invite your professor to lunch, first check out the availability of the card on this Doodle schedule. Make a note of a few dates that are available.
2. Invite your professor to lunch and give her/him some available dates.
3. Reserve the dining card on the Doodle schedule at least 48 hours in advance.
4. Stop by Fulton 315 to pick up the card after 10:00 am on the morning of your lunch.
5. Enjoy your lunch at any of the on-campus dining locations!
6. After lunch, return the card to Fulton 315 along with a receipt from the dining hall by 3:00 pm on the same day.
7. Take a picture with you and the professor and send it to Erica Graf.

Open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the Carroll School of Management. Each "Lunch with a Professor" can have a maximum of five students in attendance.

Sponsored by the Accenture Fund at Boston College
