Three Things Sophomores Should do over Winter Break
Monday, November 27, 4:00-4:30 pm OR 6:00-6:30pm
The title says it all! Three things that are manageable to do in order to position yourself well for internship searching (or maybe even help figure out some career paths with your Concentration(s)!!). Click here to register and space is limited!

Register for the Winter Job Shadow Program!
Open to all majors and class years, the Boston College Career Center Job Shadow program pairs undergraduates with individual host sites for a day-long immersion experience over Winter Break. Over the course of a day, students gain valuable exposure into a field of interest as well as mentorship from working professionals in the industry, emerging from the program with new insight and contacts. In January 2017, over 250 job shadows were completed nationwide.

Students who participate in the program can expect to:
-Connect with alumni and employers
-Gain insight into what it would be like to work in an organization on a day-to-day basis
-Observable client/customer interactions and sit in on staff meetings
-Discuss your career pursuits and aspirations with professionals
The 2018 Job Shadow program will take place from January 3-9 at sites nationwide. Register on EagleLink.

Save the Date: New York City Career Fair

Tuesday, January 9th, 9:00 am-5:00 pm, NY Hilton Midtown
Attend the Career & Internship Connections Fair in New York City on January 9th. This popular event allows Boston College students to network and interview for internships and full-time jobs with employers from a variety of career industries. See attachments for details regarding employers present and signup instructions.

Volunteer Opportunity: Ghana Health & Edu. Initiative
In 2018, GHEI will be offering three volunteer sessions: Community Health Evaluation 1 and Community Health Evaluation deep dive, and Girls’ Empowerment, each for two or three weeks, and taking place in Ghana. GHEI Summer Serve and Learn volunteer programs offer participants the chance to be immersed in a rural Ghanaian community and work alongside local staff members in support of a small community development organization’s year-round health and education programs. All volunteers will have the opportunity to develop and strengthen their skills in cross-cultural communication, project design and implementation, monitoring and evaluation, and community outreach, all while working in a low-resource environment alongside local and international counterparts to achieve a common goal. Please visit our website www.ghei.org/ssl to learn more. If you have any questions, feel free to email communications@ghei.org.

Win $1000—Participate in Klein Ethics Case Competition
The Carroll School of Management and the Boston College Center for Corporate Citizenship are excited to announce the seventh annual Walter H. Klein Business Ethics Case Competition. The competition will take place on Friday, February 9, 2018 and is open to sophomores and juniors. Teams will be provided with a business case in the weeks leading up to the competition which they will have to analyze, create recommendations, and present to a panel of judges.

The deadline to sign up is December 8th, and teams will receive the case before winter break. Students will compete as a team of two where at least one member of the team must be in the Carroll School of Management. Only 10 teams will be able to compete and we will accept team sign-ups on a first-come basis. The first place team will receive a cash prize and the opportunity to represent Boston College at a national Take Home Professor is back: 6 left!

Invite a professor to dinner in your residence hall or apartment and you will receive a $100.00 allowance to a grocery store to pay for the ingredients. Contact the professor and come up with a date and time for the dinner.

Once the plans are set, send one email to all the participants and Terry Rezzuti (rezzuti@bc.edu) with the date, time, and location.

The rules are as follows:

1. Students must be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the Carroll School.
2. There must be at least three Carroll School students attending the dinner with the professor.
3. If you have a kitchen in your apartment on or off-campus, students will cook the professor dinner.
4. If you don’t have a kitchen, you can get take-out for the professor.
5. Professors can only attend one dinner per semester. So act fast if you want to invite a particular professor!
6. There are only 13 Take Home Prof events per semester.
7. A picture must be taken and submitted to Terry at rezzuti@bc.edu for proof.

Announcing New Program: Lunch with a Professor

Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!)

The Carroll School of Management introduces “Lunch with a Professor.” We will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!

Here is how you do it:

1. Only one person can reserve the card each day. Before you invite your professor to lunch, first check out the availability of the card on this Doodle schedule. Make a note of a few dates that are available.
2. Invite your professor to lunch and give her/him some available dates.
3. Reserve the dining card on the Doodle schedule at least 48 hours in advance.
4. Stop by Fulton 315 to pick up the card after 10:00 am on the morning of your lunch.
5. Enjoy your lunch at any of the on-campus dining locations!
6. After lunch, return the card to Fulton 315 along with a receipt from the dining hall by 3:00 pm on the same day.
7. Take a picture with you and the professor and send it to Erica Graf.

Open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the Carroll School of Management. Each "Lunch with a Professor" can have a maximum of five students in attendance.
