EagleEyes and Camera Mouse: Technologies Developed at BC for People with Severe Disabilities with Prof. James Gips

8:00 pm in Campion 139

The purpose of the EagleEyes Project at Boston College is to help people with severe physical disabilities develop and be educated to their fullest by enabling them to access the computer. We work with people, often children and young adults, who cannot speak and can move only their eyes or head.

During the past twenty years we have developed two access technologies: EagleEyes allows people to control the computer by moving only their eyes. EagleEyes works through five electrodes placed on the person’s head. EagleEyes has had some dramatic success stories with children and young adults with Cerebral Palsy, Retts Syndrome, and other disorders. Camera Mouse allows people to control the computer by moving their head. Camera Mouse works through a standard webcam connected to the computer. Over 3,000,000 copies of Camera Mouse have been downloaded for free from cameramouse.org for use by people with ALS, MS, stroke, traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury.

Entrepreneurship Co-concentration Applications due
March 14, 2016
Are you interested in revolutionizing markets or joining a firm that does? The entrepreneurship co-concentration provides a strong background for launching and managing high-growth ventures in nascent or high-velocity industries. The curriculum introduces a set of tools and a way of thinking that will help students to navigate the uncertain, ambiguous contexts that often characterize new initiatives in established firms as well as start-ups.

The Entrepreneurship co-concentration helps to prepare students for careers in:

- Start-up companies
- Social Enterprises
- Corporate entrepreneurship
- Venture capital / Private equity
- Management Consulting

Freshmen, sophomores, or juniors interested in the Entrepreneurship co-concentration must complete an application (attached) which is due by March 14, 2016. Questions about the co-concentration should be directed to Professor Mary Tripsas at tripsas@bc.edu. For more information visit: http://www.bc.edu/schools/csom/departments/mgtorg/concentration.html#entrepreneurship

Internship Opportunity: Aon/Radford Consulting Analyst Internship

Compensation Consulting opportunity for anyone interested in business, economics, or math. This opportunity involves aspects of finance, accounting, human resources, and business strategy. Our office is a fast-paced work environment with a laid-back culture, with many recent BC grads. We also work with a lot of interesting start-up companies in the Tech and Life Sciences industries and there is exposure to senior leadership right from Day One. See EagleLink for more information.

Career Advising for Marketing Concentrations

The marketing world is changing rapidly and it’s hard enough to stay on top of the industry, much less the changing job landscape. To help you work through this, Jean Mojo, a member of the part-time faculty in the Marketing Department with 30 years experience in marketing and advertising, will be meeting with students every Thursday to discuss the broad range of marketing jobs, what they entail and how to approach applying for those jobs. If you’re thinking of going into marketing and are unsure of the path you want to take (or just want to do some brainstorming), come in. Meetings will be for 30 minutes on Thursdays between 11:00am and 1:00pm in Fulton 157. To set a meeting time go to: https://goo.gl/7zyKM. If you are unavailable on Thursdays and would like another meeting time, contact Prof. Mojo at mojo@bc.edu.

Submit a photo of Fulton for the academic planner!
We are looking for a photo of Fulton Hall to use for the 2016-2017 academic planner. Let your talent be displayed! Deadline for submission is April 1st. Contact grafe@bc.edu to get the required specs for the photo.

Cost of the experience is $50. This covers our bus transportation, lunch at Google, and pizza at Handy. If you are a student in the Montserrat Coalition, you can contact that office regarding funding support, should you be accepted to the program.

(note that some firms on this year’s Trek will differ)
Apply to be a Portico Teaching Assistant!

We are seeking Portico Teaching Assistants for the 2016-2017 academic year. Please note, starting next fall, TAs will be required to take a 2 credit seminar on business ethics. The purpose of this TA course is to provide Portico Teaching Assistants a greater depth of understanding of the tensions covered in Portico, and to offer an introduction to the core pedagogical techniques involved in teaching applied ethics. It will be once a week (on Monday) for 1 hour, led by your Portico professor. Class size will be 12. You must register for this class in order to be a Portico TA. More information will be provided throughout the application process.

Apply online here to be a Portico TA.

The process for this year’s T.A. application is as follows:
1. Complete the application* by 11:59 pm on Tuesday, March 1st.
2. Portico instructors will blindly review applications (i.e., your name and email will be omitted and they will read and review your essays.)
3. You will be contacted for the next step in the process after March 1st.
4. Any and all interviews will occur after spring break.
5. The process will be finalized by April 8th.

You must meet the following criteria to be considered:
- A member of the Carroll School Class of 2017 or 2018.
- If you will be abroad in either fall or spring semesters, you are not eligible and should instead apply the following year.
- You will be required to take a 2-credit seminar on business ethics with your Portico professor.
