

Checklist: Boston College Law School - Transfer Application

- Submit a completed Transfer application to Boston College Law School by July 1, 2011.
- Submit a letter stating your reasons for wishing to transfer to Boston College Law School.
- Submit a Letter of Good Standing from the Dean of your current law school.
- Submit an Official transcript from your law school, including class rank if/when available.
- Submit a letter of recommendation from a current law professor.
- Request your LSAC Credential Assembly Service report from LSAC, to be sent directly to Boston College Law School.
- You may supplement your application by including a résumé or other supplemental materials (optional).
- Submit an application fee of $75.00. Fee waivers are not available for transfer applications.

Please Note: If you have paid the fee electronically, there is no need to print out and submit the Certification page to Boston College Law School. In addition, please refrain from using your Social Security number on any documents sent to us (excluding the FAFSA and Need Access forms).