Pass/Fail Option

Starting with the Fall 2011 term, upper level law students may elect to take up to two of their elective courses (for up to 6 credits) as Pass/Fail in lieu of a letter grade. Faculty may designate which classes are eligible for Pass/Fail status and a list of such courses will be available to students before the end of each registration cycle. Upper level required courses (Constitutional Law II and Professional Responsibility) are not eligible for the Pass/Fail option, though the “menu-driven” requirements, i.e. Lawyering Skills or Perspectives on Law and Justice, may be eligible for such.

To register for the Pass/Fail option, students must:

1) Determine that the course is eligible (list posted with academic services)
2) Complete the Pass/Fail option form
3) Return the form to Academic Services by 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday of the second week of classes. (Add/Drop ends the prior day at 11:00 p.m.)

All elections for Pass/Fail are final and cannot be changed once the deadline has passed. This semester’s deadline is Wednesday, September 5, 2012.
