Instructors: Karen Breda and Alex Berrio Matamoros

LL79702 Advanced Legal Research (Spring 2012: 3 credits)

Instructor: Mark Sullivan

Prerequisites: None

This course is designed as an in-depth look at the process of legal research. Students are exposed to a wide range of legal materials and practical techniques and strategies for using these materials competently and effectively in the research process. The goal of the course is to create self-sufficient legal researchers, capable of analyzing a legal problem, and formulating and executing the appropriate and most effective research methodology. Particular attention is paid to types of legal sources and research not covered in the first year of law school (e.g. administrative law, legislative histories and legal practice materials). Both print and electronic sources are explored and critiqued. The course covers Westlaw, LexisNexis, Bloomberg Law and other electronic sources. The grade is based upon several course assignments and a final exam. Enrollment is limited to 25 students.

LL95601 Bankruptcy Law Research (Spring 2012: 2 credits)

Instructor: Mary Ann Neary

Prerequisites: None.

Students are introduced to research methods and resources for tracking bankruptcy filings, locating opinions, and utilizing practice materials. Course covers statutory research in bankruptcy code, locating controlling cases and treatises, deskbooks and other research resources. Emphasis is on the technology and tools used in current bankruptcy practice, e.g. electronic case filing (ECF/ECM), docket searching, and specialized bankruptcy practice software. Course grade will be based on several course assignments and a final exam.

LL49301 Insurance & Civil Litigation Research (Spring 2012: 2credits)

Instructor: Karen Breda

Prerequisites: None.

This course is designed as an in-depth look at legal research techniques and resources used by lawyers in the insurance field and by civil litigation attorneys. Course will cover sources of insurance law and insurance obligations, including contracts, common law doctrines, statutes and regulations. Course will teach techniques used in researching contract interpretation, tort law, government regulations, court rules, conflict of laws, case evaluation and ethical dilemmas. Course will also cover secondary sources, research tools and organizations for both insurance specialists and trial attorneys. Both print and electronic sources will be explored and utilized. Weekly ungraded exercises allow students to track their progress in learning the material. Grade will be based on two graded assignments and a final examination.

LL95001 Intellectual Property Research (Spring 2012: 2 credits)

Instructor: Joan Shear

Prerequisites: None

This course is designed as an in-depth look at the legal research materials and techniques used in the practice of intellectual property law. Course will cover basic primary sources used in IP law such as the U.S. Constitution, statutes, and cases. Course will also cover research tools and techniques unique to IP such as patent and trademark searching, and the activities and publications of the Copyright Office of the Library of Congress and Patent and Trademark Office of the Department of Commerce. Electronic sources are compared and contrasted to help students learn economical and efficient research skills necessary to be a successful IP lawyer. Ungraded exercises allow students to track their progress in learning the materials. Grade will be based on class participation, effort and two graded research exercises.

LL45701 Research for Criminal Law Practice (Spring 2012: 2 credits)

Instructor: Laurel Davis

This course is designed to provide an in-depth examination of legal research materials and techniques that will be useful for students who are interested in becoming prosecutors or criminal defense attorneys. Course will cover basic primary sources of criminal law such as the U.S. Constitution and state constitutions, as well as federal and state statutes, cases, and administrative law. Course will cover important secondary sources in the criminal law field; legislative history research skills; how to find and use jury instructions, sentencing guidelines, dockets, and practice materials such as formbooks. Students will also learn how to find and work with criminal court rules. Both print and electronic sources are explored and critiqued. The course covers Westlaw, LexisNexis, Bloomberg Law and other electronic sources. Ungraded exercises allow students to track their progress in learning the materials. Grade will be based on two graded research exercises and a take-home final examination. Enrollment is limited to 20 students.
