| BloomBoard | Multiple Offices
http://schools.bloomboard.com/ | BloomBoard was founded in 2010 by Jason Lange and Eric Dunn when they took on the challenge of developing a teacher coaching platform that would use technology to take the principles of differentiated instruction for students — and apply those principles — to teacher development and support. Along the way, they realized that great coaching requires two fundamental and distinct areas of focus: providing personalized recommendations based on needed areas of support and collecting evidence of practice.
Along with a world class team, Lange and Dunn have built a holistic set of tools and products to power both effective coaching and continuous, personalized, competency-based learning for educators. |
