Lynch School of Education
Interdisciplinary Minor

Leadership in Higher Education and Community Settings
2015-2016

This interdisciplinary minor, Leadership in Higher Education and Community Settings, is being offered by the Lynch School of Education to students in the Lynch School of Education, in the College of Arts and Sciences, in the Connell School of Nursing, and in the Carroll School of Management. This minor serves students who are interested in college student development and in the applications of psychology to work settings in institutions of higher education, in local and international Non-government Organizations (NGOs) and/or in community-based programs. The minor consists of six courses (18 credits), which are taken in the Lynch School of Education and the Carroll School of Management. The Leadership in Higher Education and Community Settings minor includes 2 required courses (6 credits) and 4 courses (12 credits) that must be selected from the list of approved courses provided below. APHD majors must earn 18 credits and must choose different PY courses than their focus electives.

Required Courses:
- ELHE/APSY3375: Leadership in Higher Education (s)
- APSY3244: Adult Psychology (PY244)

Four Electives Chosen from the Following:
- MGMT2110: Human Resources (f,s)
- MGMT2111: Ethical Leadership Skills (s)
- MGMT2123: Negotiation (f)
- MGMT2137: Managing Diversity (s)
- MGMT2139: Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship (f)
- MGMT2265: Globalization, Culture, and Ethics (f)
- APSY2041: Adolescent Psychology (f,s)
- APSY2242: Interpersonal Relations (f,s) (pre-req: APSY2240 or APSY3244)
- APSY3248: Gender Roles (f, s)
- ELHE/APSY2295: Spirituality, Religion and the College Student Experience (s)
- APSY6348: Culture, Community and Change (f,s)
- APSY3310: Contemporary Issues in APHD - permission required (f,s)
- *PY/UN471: Psychological Responses to Humanitarian Crises: Human Rights, Gender Violence, and International Justice (summer or spring, once a year) *seniors only with instructor’s permission
- APSY2152/APSY4245: Applied Psychology & Human Development Practicum (f,s)
- APSY4199: Independent Study (by permission of instructor) (f,s)

Students must complete an application and submit it to Campion Hall 104 or via email to (lindsey.itzkowitz@bc.edu). Applications are due during a student’s sophomore or junior year. A minimum grade point average of 3.5 is required for the minor and a total of fifteen students will be admitted per cohort.
APPLICATION
Lynch School of Education  Interdisciplinary Minor
‘Leadership in Higher Education and Community Settings’

Please complete this application and submit it to the Office of Undergraduate Student Services, Campion Hall 104.

Application Date: __________  Grad Year: __________

Name: _____________________________________________________________________

Eagle ID: ___________________________________________________________________

Current Major(s): ____________________________________________________________

Current Minor(s): ____________________________________________________________

Email Address: ______________________________________________________________

Cell Phone #: ________________________________________________________________

Please respond to the following two questions.

1. Why do you want to complete a minor in Leadership in Higher Education and Community Settings (50 words maximum)?

2. Briefly describe any activities or experiences you have had that are related to the minor. You may attach your resume if you like

Accepted ( )  Denied ( )  Other ( )_____________________

Coordinator Signature: _____________________________________________  Date:

Lynch School of Education
Applied Psychology and Human Development
Department of Counseling /Developmental/Psychology

Dr. Eric Dearing
Dr. Jacqueline Lerner
Dr. Penny Hauser-Cram